

Eucharistic Homily

Sixth Lord's Day of Epiphany
February 10, 2019

Just as Simon's miraculous catch of fish was a sign of things to come, the Lord's Supper is also a sign—a promise—of the glorious future of Christ's kingdom.

When we partake of the Supper together each week, we are getting a foretaste of that great Marriage Supper of the Lamb that the book of Revelation speaks of. This meal that we share together anticipates that day when a countless multitude of people from every nation will feast in the glorious presence of Jesus in the fullness of His heavenly kingdom. Every week at this Table, Jesus reminds us of His promise and strengthens us to participate in His mission.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious God has prepared for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
