

Eucharistic Homily

Seventh Lord's Day of Epiphany

February 17, 2019

When Jesus healed the man with the skin affliction in Luke 5, he was able to return to his home and his family and his community for the first time in a long time. But most importantly, he was once again able to enter God's house and worship the Lord.

As we receive the Lord's Supper each week's, God reaffirms to each of us that we are forgiven, we are cleansed, we are welcome in the presence of God. The sin and defilement that once separated you from God has been removed by Jesus' death and resurrection. You who once were alienated from God and without hope in the world, Jesus has reconciled, redeemed, and cleansed. Because of Jesus' broken body and shed blood, you are welcome in God's presence, not merely as a guest, but as a beloved child of God.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious God has prepared for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
