

Eucharistic Homily

Eighth Lord's Day of Epiphany

February 24, 2019

The Lord's Supper is a reaffirmation of God's forgiveness and peace, and this Supper is also a pledge to us of the resurrection glory that awaits us. The book of Revelation tells us that this meal is only a foretaste of things to come, when all God's people finally behold their Savior face to face and feast together at the Marriage Supper of the Lamb. If you're going to feast with Jesus in glory, you're going to need a glorified body. And that's exactly what we've been promised.

As you partake of this Supper by faith, you receive the grace of God here and now. But just remember, that the best is yet to come.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious God has prepared for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
