

Eucharistic Homily

Sixth Lord's Day of Easter

May 26, 2019

As we journey on in the Christian life, there is always a tendency for us to forget just how much we need God's grace and just how gracious God has been to us. That forgetfulness is at the root of spiritual pride and self-righteous indignation.

Every week at the Lord's Table, we are reminded of the lavish grace of God toward us in Christ. The bread and the wine remind God and remind us of the immeasurable price that was paid to secure our forgiveness and rescue. This Holy Communion is tangible, edible proof of God's grace toward those who least deserve it—which is every single one of us. Rejoice and be glad! We who once were dead have been made alive in Christ. We who once were lost have been found.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious Father has provided for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
