

Eucharistic Homily

Pentecost
June 9, 2019

When God gives a gift to His people, He very often gives Himself. He gives Himself to us so that we might then, in turn, represent and embody His gracious presence to others. We've received the Spirit of God so that we might be agents of the Spirit's work in the world. We've been given the gift of the Spirit so that we might become a gift of the Spirit to Christ's church.

At the Lord's Table, we've are invited to feast on the body of Christ that was broken for our salvation so that we might become the broken body of Christ for the salvation of the world. We've been invited to drink the life-giving blood of our Savior so that we can then pour out our lives for one another. At the Lord's Table, you are what you eat.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious Father has provided for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
