

Eucharistic Homily

*Twenty-Fourth Lord's Day after Pentecost
November 24, 2019*

When call the sacrament of the Table “Holy Communion”, we are acknowledging that the same Jesus whose body was broken and whose blood was poured out is also alive and well and reigning over all things at the right hand of God. In other words, for us to have “Holy Communion” with our Savior through His body and blood, he must be alive—and have a body.

This sacramental meal proclaims the Lord’s death and His resurrection, and our participating in Holy Communion is a reaffirmation of God’s promise that our bodies will be raised in glory and that we will share in God’s new creation.

If you’ve been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious Father has provided for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
