

Eucharistic Homily

Second Lord's Day of Epiphany
January 19, 2020

Hebrews 10 contains this wonderful invitation: "Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the veil, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great high priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water."

When we come to the Lord's Table, we have the astonishing privilege of not just seeing a stairway to heaven but of actually ascending into the presence of the Father through Jesus and sharing a meal together in the heavenly presence of God Himself.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious God has provided for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
