

Eucharistic Homily

Fifth Lord's Day in Lent

March 29, 2020

Jesus is resurrection and life. At the Lord's Table, we receive a foretaste of the resurrection and life that awaits us in the new creation. Through the broken body and shed blood of Jesus, we participate ahead of time in the new creation as we are being made into a new creation. We still live in a fallen world, and unless Jesus comes first, we will all die. But Jesus' resurrection life has broken into this fallen world and is renewing us. The glorified body of Jesus is in heaven, but through this Holy Communion the church becomes, imperfectly yet very truly, the glorified body of Jesus here on earth.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious God has provided for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
