

Eucharistic Homily

Third Lord's Day of Pentecost

June 21, 2020

Job's life and his honesty and his faithfulness and his integrity are but a dim foreshadowing of Jesus. When he was being scapegoated, Jesus refused to cave under pressure. He refused to take the easy way out. He refused to deal in lies. Instead, he held fast to the truth, because he trusted His Father and He desired to please Him more than anyone else.

But the Father vindicated Jesus and proved Him to be the Son of God in power by raising Him from the dead in the Spirit. Jesus faced death undaunted by fear, and so can we, because we who have died with Christ in baptism are guaranteed to share in His resurrection life at the Last Day.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious God has provided for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.

Pastor Jimmy Gill

Christ Redeemer Presbyterian Church

Live Oak, FL

www.crpcliveoak.org