

Eucharistic Homily

Fourth Lord's Day of Pentecost

June 28, 2020

Every week at the Lord's Table, we have the opportunity to grow in our love for the Lord and for His gifts. Coming into the Lord's presence to eat and drink with God's people is—paradoxically—one of the best ways to grow in our hunger and thirst for the gifts of God. We are wired to grow to love the things we do over and over again, and so coming to this Table—week in and week out—is an important spiritual discipline.

Each week we are reminded that we are at peace with God and need not fear His judgment because of the perfect sacrifice that Christ Jesus has provided in His death and resurrection. And what's more, we are reminded that our gracious God, who did not spare His own Son but freely gave Him up for us, will also with Him graciously give us all things. You need not worry or fret about this life, because your heavenly Father has gone to these great lengths to secure your welfare in the life of the world to come.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious God has provided for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
