

Eucharistic Homily

Eighth Lord's Day of Pentecost

July 26, 2020

Like a good Father, God hides Himself in order to to be found. He sometimes makes it seem that He is absent so that we can know Him and His faithfulness in richer and deeper ways. And, in the end, we realize that He was with us all along.

That is certainly the case as we come to the Lord's Table each week. Jesus hides Himself in the sacraments so that we will seek Him and find Him there by faith. We may not understand all that is going on when receive the Supper, but we trust that Jesus gives Himself to us through this ordinary bread and ordinary wine. Jesus has promised to open our eyes to His glory in the breaking of bread, and so we come to break bread with Jesus trusting that He will bless us and show us His glory as He's promised.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious God has provided for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.

Pastor Jimmy Gill

Christ Redeemer Presbyterian Church

Live Oak, FL

www.crpcliveoak.org