

Eucharistic Homily

Tenth Lord's Day of Pentecost
August 9, 2020

Sinful anger is rooted in our selfish desires. Sinful anger seeks to destroy that which is keeping us from getting what we want.

But this Table reveals just how silly and pathetic our desires are and how trivial and weak our anger is. Here we see the unfathomable depths of God's love and the terrifying intensity of His wrath against sin. The broken body and shed blood of God's own Son show us the righteous fury of God against sin and the astonishing mercy and compassion of God for sinners. Jesus has triumphed over sin and death and Hell, and He gives Himself to us in the Holy Communion that we might share in the life of the age to come.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious God has provided for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
