

Eucharistic Homily

*Fifteenth Lord's Day of Pentecost
September 13, 2020*

Baptism unites us to Jesus' death and resurrection so that we are delivered from bondage to sin and empowered by the Spirit to walk in a whole new way of life.

Baptism also confers upon us a new status and a new identity as priests. Just as a Levitical priest would be ordained with ceremonial washings, we too are sanctified and set apart as God's priestly people. Because baptism is applied to all Christians, we are all holy. We all have access into God's heavenly sanctuary to make intercession and to offer worship there. We all have access to God's presence and are able to partake of the holy food of the altar. This is holy food for holy people.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious God has provided for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
