

Eucharistic Homily

Sixteenth Lord's Day of Pentecost

September 20, 2020

The whole story of the Bible and the whole story of the world is really one big love story. This, of course, is reflected in all the good fairy tales: Kill the dragon, get the girl.

As the end of the book of Revelation shows us, the whole world is headed for a wedding feast—the wedding feast to end all wedding feasts. And so it's no accident that one of the two sacraments Jesus gave his church is a weekly Communion meal that is a foretaste and a preparation for the ultimate Communion meal when we are fully and forever united to our Savior. Until that great and glorious day, this is where we commune with our Lord and grow in our knowledge of his love for us, His bride.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious God has provided for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
