

Eucharistic Homily

*Seventeenth Lord's Day of Pentecost
September 27, 2020*

What every marriage needs most is the gospel. Our marriages need to be saturated with and shaped by God's grace.

We need to comprehend Christ's sacrificial love so that we can sacrificially love another. We need to grasp Christ's free forgiveness so that we can freely forgive one another. We need to be gripped by Christ's unrelenting faithfulness so that we can be unrelentingly faithful to one another.

In this Holy Communion, the love and forgiveness and faithfulness of Christ are illustrated and imparted to us. As we commune in the body and blood of Christ, his life is formed in our lives—including our marriages.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious God has provided for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
