

Eucharistic Homily

Twenty-Third Lord's Day of Pentecost

November 8, 2020

In the midst of great political turmoil, it's very easy to forget that all political problems—like all cultural problems—are ultimately spiritual problems. In other words, there are no political solutions to the problems we face as a nation.

Donald Trump cannot save us. The Republican party cannot save us. The Supreme Court cannot save us. Your favorite political commentator cannot save us. They all need saving, and Jesus is the only Savior.

This Holy Communion meal proclaims that Christ has died, Christ has risen, and Christ will come again. Jesus is the one who alone can make all things new, and he is making all things new through His church.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious God has provided for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
