Tenth Lord's Day after Pentecost

August 1, 2021

As we come to this Holy Communion every Lord's Day, it's essential for us to remember that the best is yet to come.

There is real grace offered here that we receive by faith. As Paul says in 1 Cor. 10, the bread that we break really is participation in the body of Christ. The cup that we bless really is participation in the blood of Christ. But even still, without discounting the gifts of God offered here, we must remember that this Table points us ahead to the true Feast—the Wedding Supper of the Lamb.

If this Table leaves you longing for more than this Table can provide, well, that's the whole point. The gifts offered here are to whet our appetite and sustain us on the journey to the heavenly city.

If you've been baptized into Christ and are seeking to live faithfully and obediently for Him, you are invited to partake of this feast that our gracious God has provided for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
