

Eucharistic Homily

Third Lord's Day in Lent

March 20, 2022

Herod served up John's head on a platter in order to save His own reputation. Jesus willingly endured unimaginable suffering and humiliation in order to lay down His life as heavenly food for His people.

Because of His self-serving and self-seeking, Herod was eventually banished from His throne. Because of His self-sacrifice and self-giving, Jesus was raised in glory and exalted to the Father's right hand in heaven.

Jesus gives us His body and blood so that we might share in His life and glory and victory, and so that we will have the grace to humble ourselves and follow Jesus on the path through suffering that leads to resurrection glory.

All who have been baptized and are trusting in Christ are welcome to partake of this feast Christ has prepared for us. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
