

Eucharistic Homily

Seventh Lord's Day of Easter

Ascension Sunday

May 29, 2022

It may seem that Jesus has left us on our own with no hope of accomplishing the task He has given us, but Mark 16 reminds us that Jesus is working with and through His church to accomplish His plan for the redemption of the world.

Each and every week at this Lord's Table, our exalted Lord gives Himself to us afresh in order to nourish and strengthen us for the good work He's prepared for us to do. In this feast of the New Covenant, Jesus sustains us by the blessings of His broken body and shed blood, and He points us ahead to the glory that we will share with Him when He comes at the Last Day.

So all who are baptized and are trusting in Christ for the forgiveness of their sins are welcome to partake of this feast. These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
