

Eucharistic Homily

Eleventh Lord's Day after Pentecost

August 21, 2022

As we come to the Lord's Table, it is imperative that we remember that this Table is a table of peace. This Table is for those who've been washed in the waters of baptism and are trusting in Christ for the forgiveness of their sins. This Table is for all those whose sins are forgiven and who've been reconciled to God by Christ, the one and only Mediator.

There is room at the Lord's Table for any and all who will come, but there is no room at this Table for bitterness or unforgiveness. Jesus is the Lord of this Table, and no one has His permission to come with bitterness in their heart toward a brother or sister in Christ. It doesn't matter what the other person has done or what you think they've done. You must confess the bitterness and be done with it. You must forgive your brother and you must ask God's forgiveness. Put away the bitterness, and come in gladness of heart to receive the gifts of your gracious Savior.

These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
