

Eucharistic Homily

Second Lord's Day of Christmastide

January 1, 2023

It's 2023 and Jesus is still Lord. Jesus is still King. Jesus is still reigning at the right hand of the Father, and there will be no end to the increase of His government and peace.

We have no idea what this year will hold, but King Jesus already knows the challenges that you will face this year, and He already has everything carefully orchestrated to provide for you in exactly the way you need at the exact moment you need it.

So put away all your worry and anxiety. Repent of your sinful fear and unbelief. Give up on trying to control other people or your situations, and, instead, focus on choosing to obey exactly what God has required of you in His Word, trusting Him to bless your obedience.

There is no peace apart from the Prince of Peace. But in Christ, there is an infinite supply of light and joy and peace. Come in faith with thanksgiving to receive the gifts of you gracious King.
